

The E-Rate program is essential to allowing affordable access for our Nation's schools and libraries who provide oftentimes the only access the student or patron has to the wealth of educational and professional resources available on the Internet. Please adjust the woefully small pool of funding to prioritize this population of Americans.